Mr. Arbuckle was formerly a lawyer in Texas, and a shining light at the Bowie county bar till his defeat for justice of the peace by a grocer led him to accept an engagement as an actor with Peter Baker, the German comedian. This incident side-tracked a legal genius, and gave to the American stage its most promising young comedian.

TOPICS OF THE DAY FROM A WOMAN'S POINT OF VIEW.

BY MARIE ALICE PHILLIPS.

Press women from all parts of the State were in Atlanta Wednesday and Thursday, June 20th and 21st, in attendance at the regular meeting of the Georgia Woman's Press Club. The sessions morning, afternoon and evening were open to the public, but scarcely attended, except by those who were interested in the future of the newspaper and magazine. Greetings were received from editors and writers in different parts of the county, by letters and telegrams. Mrs. George Ball, president of the Alabama Woman's Press Club, and Miss Roberta Seawell representing the Tennessee press, made clever and humorous addresses. The afternoon sessions were devoted to controversy on different subjects bearing on the future of the press. The evening were of a social nature. There was music and light and laughter, and the men were invited to give an opinion of the work the Federals had accomplished, and were to accomplish.

Mr. Lucian Knight was the last speaker of the evening. He began with a high tribute to woman in journalism and gave a serio-comic picture of woman's gifts and her frailties. Paraphrasing Goldsmith, he said:

"I gazed in awe, and still the wonder grew,
How one small tongue could do the work of two!"

He declared women to be a mystery, and quoted from the wag who declared her to be like a conundrum, "We can't guess her, but we'll never give her up."

Mr. Knight, growing more serious, then told the rapid progress made by women in the last few years. At that time she filled only one profession, that of school teaching; now she is 900 strong in the world of doctors, 400 in that of lawyers, 300 in the pulpit, besides being prominent in printing, sculpture, in banking and in mercantile enterprises of various sorts.

Mr. Knight declared himself on the side of equal pay for equal work, for women and men. He stressed women's good work in the world in establishing charities, reformatories, etc.

He applauded the legislature of Illinois, which had appropriated $10,000 for the erection of a statue of Frances Willard to be placed in the capitol at Washington City.

Mr. Knight declared that he was in favor of woman having an equal voice in the councils which govern her. He spoke of the happier marriages which would come when women were less weak and less dependent. He said that it was his conviction that woman's progress had meant no loss to her love of home or her attention to the interests that center there, and indeed he thought that all this mental advance of woman would tend to the enrichment of the home. Mr. Knight closed with a beautiful word-picture

A LITTLE CHAT ABOUT MATTERS THEATRICAL

What Academy of Music Patrons Will See and Hear During the Coming Season.

THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC TO OPEN AUGUST 31

With Al Field's Minstrels—Ground to be Broken Soon on the New Granby Street Theatre—Good Business at the Summer Resort Theatres—Notes About Footlight Favorites and New Plays.

The coming season at the Academy will be opened August 31st by Field's Minstrels. The bookings up to date show that Norfolk theatregoers may look forward with great pleasure to the opening of the season. Up to date Manager Leath has booked attractions as follows:

Field's Minstrels, "McFadden's Flats," "Man O'Warman," "A Poor Relation," "Sorrows of Satan," Frederick Ward, "Bell of New York," "Sherlock Holmes," "Zaza," Charles B. Hanford, Jeff G. Angelis, Macklyn Arbuckle, "Prisoner of Zenda," "Faust," Sol Smith Russell, James and Kiddle, Murray & Mack, "A Milk White Flag," Matthews & Buiger, "Barbara Frenchie," Roland Reed, "Secret Service," The Black Patti, "Why Smith Left Home," "A Midnight Bell," Denman Thompson in "The Old Homestead," "Evil Eye," Gussie Hand, Otis Skinner, "Den of the Opium Ring," "Because She Loved Him So," "The Casino Girl," Modjeska, "Becky Sharp," Primrose & Dockstater's Minstrels, "Miss Hobbs," Frank Daniels, "Quo Vadis," "Sign of the Cross" and Joseph Jefferson.

The work of remodeling the Academy of Music is steadily progressing under the personal supervision of Mr. H. D. VanWyck. Already the building begins to give promise of the future beauty that is shown by the plans and drawings. Mr. VanWyck expects to have the work complete by August 15th. The season will be opened at the Academy August 31st by Field's Minstrels.

The summer theatrical season is now in full swing at the summer resorts. Manager Joe LePaucheur is presenting at Ocean View the highest grade bills ever seen there, and the attractions are drawing crowds.

Mr. Thomas G. Leath, of Richmond, will be in Norfolk to-morrow on matters connected with the new vaudeville theatre to be erected on Granby street. It is stated that ground will be broken next week and the work pushed to speedy completion. The Virginian-Pilot has already given an outline of the plans for the new playhouse. Messrs. Greener Neal and "Jake" Wells were in the city during the past few days attending to some preliminary work connected with the building.

The Buckroe Beach Theatre is also enjoying a very prosperous theatrical season under Manager Rex. During the past week he has had there the Deshon Opera Company, and presented "Mascoffe" and "Olivette." The company play a return engagement there in August. The performances next week include high grade vaudeville, the Edison Biograph and Diana in her beautiful mirror dances.

The Casino, at Newport News, is also enjoying a profitable season. The bill next week includes some of the strongest vaudeville acts on the road. The performance of Friday night was a benefit for Liberty Fire Company No. 1, and the people gave the boys a rousing house.

The Chamberlin Hotel, ever up to date, is giving its patrons summer theatricals of a high class at moderate prices, drawing its talent from the list of best-known professional entertainers. This new feature is meeting with very liberal patronage, and adds much to the pleasure of life at Old Point Comfort.

John Page, the acrobatic comedian, has been engaged for "The Rogers Brothers in Central Park."

Klaw & Erlanger have engaged Hilda Clarke for prima donna of "The Nations" next season.

Ben Teal will begin rehearsals of Klaw & Erlanger's new opera, "Foxy Quiller," September 10.

Nellie Thorne will play Esther in "Ben Hur" next season. She is now in England, and will return to America August 1.

Frank McKee has accepted Edward El Rose's scenario of his dramatization of Anthony Hope's story, "The Heart of the Princess Odra," in which Mary Manneering will be seen next season. Mr. McKee contemplates presenting Mary Manneering in both this play and "Janice Meredith."

Sig. de Novellis, the musical director of the Klaw & Erlanger opera company, will return from Europe in August.

Joseph Brooks and Ben Stern have engaged Hobart Bosworth as leading man of the company which will support Blanche Walsh in Eugene Presbrey's new play.

Frank McKee has decided to call the English version of his German musical farce, "In Himmelhof," in which Peter F. Dailey will star "Hodge, Podge & Co."

W. S. Hart will play Messala, Mary Shaw, Amrah, Mabel Heston, the singer, and Adeline Adler, Tirzah, in "Ben Hur" next season. They filled these roles in the original production.

Frank McKee has engaged A. S. Lipton to play Lord Clowes, the spy; George Backus, Lieutenant Mobray, and Amy Ricard, Tabitha Drinker, in support of Mary Manneering in "Janice Meredith."

Frank McKee has engaged J. W. Barton, the song writer, as general musical director of his musical attractions. Mr. Barton will travel with the August family.

The scenes in Klaw & Erlanger's new opera, "Foxy Quiller," by Harry B. Smith and Reginald de Koven, will be in the dockyards of Portsmouth and in Corsica.

Frank McKee has engaged Christine Blessing and John G. Sparks for John J. McNally's new farce comedy in which he will introduce the August family to American theatre patrons.

The first week in August "Doc" Martin, the horse trainer, will begin the training of the eight principal, and four substitute horses used in the chariot race in "Ben Hur."

Although the dramatic version of "Janice Meredith" will retain all the strong incidents in the book story, dramatic coherence will require several changes. The love interest, especially, will be made more direct, and the real identity of Charles Fowles will be revealed in the first act, and not held in abeyance, as in the book.

Maclyn Arbuckle, the comedian, is writing sketches to be called "Red River Bottom Politics," in which he will tell the humorous side of political life in Texas, and some of his experiences as a canvasser for the office of justice of the peace in Texas.

The Klaw & Erlanger Comedy Company, headed by Gus and Max Rogers, in "The Rogers Brothers in Central Park," will be a notable organization because of the number of young artists who will appear in it. The principal female roles will be played by Grace Freeman, Emma Francis, Jeanette Harbord, Edith St. Clair, Hattie Waters, Mary Taylor, Madge Pierce, Gertrude Saye, Leon Dueth and Margaret Stewart.

Besides these pretty girls there will be a chorus of 60 as handsome and shapely young women as the stage can boast. The principal supporting male characters will be played by Eugene
